VERIFICATION OF QUALIFICATIONS AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION

When assessing applications for College membership, it may be necessary in some instances for the College to seek verification of an applicant's primary and / or specialist medical qualifications through a third party, notably the Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or to seek information or make enquiries in relation to professional registration or conduct. Where there is a charge to the College for obtaining such information, you will be asked to pay that fee in addition to the standard application fee of AUD$100. Membership applications will not be progressed until that fee is paid to the College.

- Certified copy of your primary medical qualification and any qualification in obstetrics and gynaecology or other specialist field;
- Evidence of current employment and Good Standing from relevant health authority*;
- Certified copy of current medical registration*;
- Current Curriculum Vitae.

* For applicants registered in an Australian jurisdiction a request should be made to that jurisdiction for a Certificate of Registration Status to be issued to RANZCOG and the College notified of this with your application.
